

Qualifications Needed For a Successful CCFA/WA Provider

Determine the qualifications you need to learn or you may already possess to be a successful CCFA/WA provider.

What qualifications make a successful CCFA provider?

Type of Service:

- Coordination of Medical/Dental/Health Check (ages 0-17)
- Coordination of Trauma Assessment (ages 4-17)
- CCFA Assessments
- Relative/Non-Relative Care Assessment & Home Evaluation
- Court Appearance and/or Testimony

CCFA staff requirements for ALL CCFA services:

1. Possession of a Master's or Doctoral degree and licensure from the Georgia Composite Board as a Psychologist, LCSW, LMFT, LPC, LMSW, LAMFT, LAPC.
2. Possession of Master's or Doctoral degree in a Human Services/ Social Services field under supervision for licensure by a licensed Psychologist, LCSW, LPC or LMFT in accordance with the Georgia Composite Board.

What qualifications make a successful WA provider?

Type of Service (Clinical):

- Crisis Intervention/Prevent Disruption
- Crisis Intervention/Behavior Management
- In-Home Case Management
- Court Appear/Testimony
- In-Home Intensive Treatment

Type of Service (Non-Clinical):

- Transportation Service

WA staff requirements for Clinical services:

1. Possession of a Master's or Doctoral degree and licensure from the Georgia Composite Board as a Psychologist, LCSW, LMFT, LPC, LMSW, LAMFT, LAPC.
2. Possession of Master's or Doctoral degree in a Human Services/ Social Services field under supervision for licensure by a licensed Psychologist, LCSW, LPC or LMFT in accordance with the Georgia Composite Board.

WA staff requirements for Non-Clinical services:

1. Possession of a bachelor's degree in a human services field from an accredited college
2. Non-degreed individuals, demonstrate through documentation of training and experience, at least 5 years of experience in human services work.